

AIRLINE ACADEMY of AUSTRALIA

Advanced Diploma of Aviation (Airline Transport Pilot Licence)

(Commercial Pilot Licence, Multi engine Command Instrument Rating and ATPL subjects)

Course Description

69868 Advanced Diploma of Aviation (Airline Transport Pilot Licence) Cricos Code 057793B

Course Content

The fully integrated Ground School program covers all the theoretical requirements for the Australian Commercial Pilot Licence and Command Instrument Rating theory subjects. Students will also study additional modules including Crew Resource Management and GPS. Students will meet the practical flying requirements for Commercial Pilot Licence, Night VFR Rating and Multi engine Command Instrument. Students also complete the Airline Transport Pilot Licence theoretical subjects.

203.4 Hours Dual and Solo, Cessna 172, Cessna 172RG, Beechcraft Duchess, ATC710K, AST300 Flight Simulators

Note: Hours quoted above are based on average student ability. The training is competency based, therefore total hours may vary. Prices may be subject to change without notice. If additional training is required to achieve the high standard that the Airline Academy of Australia is recognised for, it will be charged at the applicable rate.

Duration

Full-time - 72 weeks

Credit Transfer

Previous experience, knowledge or qualifications may be counted towards achieving the course outcomes. Proof or demonstration of such will be required in these cases.

Entry Requirements

Academic level equal to Australian year 12

You must be at least 18 years of age by completion of the course.

Facilities

The Airline Academy of Australia offers flying training from modern fully air conditioned premises located on Archerfield Aerodrome. Cadets have access to telephone, fax, photocopying and Internet facilities for flight planning. All classrooms are carpeted and equipped with whiteboards and a range of instructional aids.

Equipment, Learning Resources and Methods of Study

This course offers a fully integrated program of ground school and flight training, this enabling the student to achieve their Commercial Pilot Licence, Night VFR Rating and Multi engine Command Instrument Rating and ATPL (frozen) in the most cost and time effective way.

Assessment

Assessment of knowledge and flying skills is Competency Based in accordance with the CASA Day VFR Syllabus and Civil Aviation Order 40.2

Location of Course Delivery

Airline Academy of Australia, Beatty Road, Archerfield Airport, Queensland 4108.

Fees Requirements

The fees for the course are AUD$64,500. This includes a fully integrated ground school, textbooks, reference materials, publications, flight equipment, headset and uniforms.

Financial Assistance

This Advanced Diploma Course is registered with CENTRELINK and you may be eligible for financial assistance ,eg Youth Assistance or AUSTUDY.